

Dhakuakhana College organized One Day Discussion Programme on “Gender Discrimination and Women’s Rights”

A sensitization programme on “Gender Discrimination and Women’s Rights” was organized by Dhakuakhana College in association with Dhakuakhana Girls’ College and collaborated by North East Network (NEN), Guwahati on 19th September, 2016. The programme coordinated by Dipak Kr. Sarma of Political Science department was a part of academic collaboration with North East Network (NEN) under the auspices of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Dhakuakhana College.

The programme was inaugurated by Dr. Jugananda Sut, Principal, Dhakuakhana College. In his address he urged for launching a mission towards eradicating the social evil of Gender discrimination from the region. Mr. Hira Chamuah, Principal of Dhakuakhana Girls’ College delivered the welcome address and described the event as a path-breaking initiative towards gender parity.

Mrs. Chitralekha Baruah, Project Coordinator of North East Network, of Guwahati attended the programme as resource persons. Mrs. Baruah in her deliberation highlighted upon theoretical differences between sex and gender with suitable examples of her practical experience as a women activist. Among the dignitaries present, Mrs. Bulumoni Dutta, President of Dhakuakhana Bar Association, Mr. Prafulla Chutia, Principal of Dhakuakhana Girls' HS School, Mrs. Bijaya Dutta, President of Dhakuakhana College Woman's Cell and many others also took part in the interaction.

Large number of local intellectuals, literary and academic personalities and civil society members of the Dhakuakhana were present on the occasion. Total number of participants in the discussion was almost 300 including teachers, students and other staff of both Dhakuakhana College and Dhakuakhana Girls' College.